

The International Section on Prevention in Transportation

37th EAGOSH Meeting, 12-13 November 2014 in Büttelborn, Germany

www.issa.int/web/prevention-transportation

ISSA

- international non-profit organization
- based in Geneva, Switzerland
- more than 340 member organizations in 160 countries
- promotes dynamic social security in a globalizing world

- Goals at international level:
 - prevention of accidents
 - improvement of occupational safety & health

What is the Special Commission on Prevention?

- Coordinates the ISSA prevention activities
- 13 specialized International Sections cover key economic activity

Tasks & Tools includes

- Training & advanced training
- Exchange & publication of information (e.g. best practice examples)
- Development of prevention strategies
- Formation of technical commissions & workgroups
- PR work & networking

Special Commission on Prevention:
13 Sections on Prevention

Main objectives of the International Section on Prevention in Transportation

- Establishing international standards: reduce the number and severity of work- and commute-related accidents
- Knowledge management, implementation of research results and knowledge transfer on OHS best practices
- Promotion and development of training and qualification programmes in OHS for employees

Our 27 members are representing 13 countries on five continents

Become part of our Section and...

© BG Verkehr

- Get your topics on the table
- Profit from access to an international network of experts and from an unique possibility of knowledge transfer
- Be up to date on international developments

Membership is open to all organisations whose goals are to promote prevention through international cooperation.

© BG Verkehr

issa

Establishment of the Section in Prevention in Transportation

Preparatory meeting for the 1st General Assembly
Hamburg, 3. July 2014

© IVSS Section on Transportation

1st General Assembly at the XX. World Congress on Safety and Health at Work
Frankfurt, 24. August 2014

Elected members of the Board

Chairperson

J. Kauma
FAI

Vice-
Chairperson

Dr. J. Hedtmann
BG Verkehr

Secretary
General

Dr. C. Felten
BG Verkehr

Treasurer

Dr. N. Schilling
BG Verkehr

Elected Auditors

S. Sauerbier
DHL

Head of the DHL
Regional/Global
Restricted Commodity
Group

K. Kuns
Veolia

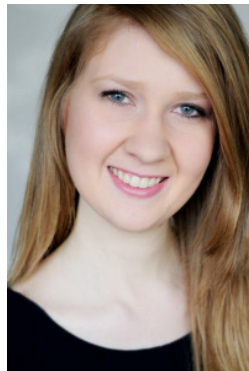

Head of Health &
Safety, Quality &
Environmental Management

The General Secretariat

Personnel of the Headquarters in Hamburg

Mrs Carmen Dencker

Mrs Andrea Esken

Work program – Focus areas

- Minimum standards for work safety and protection in transportation
 - E.g. loading safety & securing cargo; hazardous good transport
- Violence, attacks & aggression (e.g. bus, taxi, waste disposal, shipping)
 - E.g. dealing with unruly passengers
- Safety on the road and in transport
 - E.g. apron safety
- Assessment of Occupational diseases
 - E.g. musculoskeletal illnesses
- Establishing a culture of prevention
 - E.g. Shift work, work scheduling

Work program - 2014

Past Events

Symposium (XX World Congress on Safety and Health at Work, Frankfurt)
What is needed to make Vision Zero a success in OSH and road safety?

Organized with the German Road Safety Council (DVR)

© Stephan Floss/ DGUV/kongressbild.de

© Stephan Floss/ DGUV/kongressbild.de

© Stephan Floss/ DGUV/kongressbild.de

Check out the video on our website:

<http://www.issa.int/web/prevention-transportation/section-events>

Work program - 2015

Upcoming Events

- Symposium
(Hamburg, September 2015)
Violence, attacks & aggression in Transportation

- Workshop as a side event at the A+A
(Düsseldorf, 27. – 30. October 2015)
Securing cargo

© BG Verkehr

© Astrid Groeneveld

Ongoing Activities

- Ebola: detailed information and recommendations for the transport sector (coming up on the IVSS website)
- Newsletter with information about news, section activities & external events
- Creation of working groups on specific areas (e.g., dangerous good)
- Building up a network of experts
- Acquisition of new members

4 NOVEMBER 2014 | SECTION ON PREVENTION IN TRANSPORTATION

Frequently asked questions about the Ebola virus disease (EVD) in the transport sector

The transport business is a globally acting industrial sector. In certain cases entering these countries is inevitable, because urgently needed goods, such as medical supplies, have to be...

The screenshot shows the website header with the ISSA logo and navigation menu. The main content area features a title 'International Section of the ISSA on Prevention in Transportation' and a sub-header 'Frequently asked questions about the Ebola virus disease (EVD) in the transport sector'. There are also sections for 'Latest news' and 'Upcoming events'.

For further information, questions or remarks do not hesitate to contact us

Mail: secretariat@issa-transportation.de

Phone: +4940/39802200

